

DFV/AAMP QUALITY COMPETITION FOR SAUSAGE AND HAM

Dear Participant,

Thank you for signing up for the IFFA quality inspections for sausage and ham in Madison, Wisconsin. To ensure the proper execution according to our standards, please note the following for the shipping of samples.

1. Please find attached a delivery note with all products that you have registered. The delivery note contains:
  - The name of the store, as it will appear on the certificates
  - The name of the registered products, as they will appear on the certificates
  - The corresponding sample (registration) numbers

Please check that all details are correct. If additions or amendments are necessary, we kindly ask you for a handwritten correction. Please send us the corrected delivery note immediately, or at the latest, when submitting the samples.

2. Each sample must be packed separately (vacuum-sealed) and marked (with label or waterproof marker) with the corresponding sample number (see pt. 1). The samples and the packaging must not allow conclusions about the submitter (e.g. by name, logo). If necessary, notices are removed or covered prior to the examination.
3. All samples must be packed together with the delivery note (see pt.1) in one container (e.g. carton). The delivery note must be included! Please ensure that the samples on the delivery note can be clearly assigned to the submitter.
4. Delivery of Samples
  - Mailing Deadline: January 18, 2019, by end of business day to: University of Wisconsin-Madison, UW Meat Laboratory, 1805 Linden Drive, Madison, WI 53706. Questions? Contact Dr. Jeff Sindelar, Extension Meat Specialist, at 608-262-0555, or by fax at 608-265-3110.
